Agency: Department of Homeland Security

Posted Date: March 24, 2011

Response Date: Apr 22, 2011 4:00 pm Eastern

The U.S. Coast Guard, Shore Infrastructure Logistics Center (SILC), in Norfolk, VA has a requirement for emergency lodging services (hotel rooms, full food services and conference rooms) to stand up the U.S. Coast Guard Port Arthur, Texas Incident Command Post (ICP) in the event that severe weather (e.g., a Category 2 or above hurricane) or other emergency (e.g., terrorist attack or civil unrest) hits the Port Arthur, TX area. The lodging facility (which includes hotel rooms, dining facility and conference rooms) shall be at least 200 miles and no further than 250 miles north of Port Arthur, Texas.

Approximately 150 hotel rooms will be needed as soon as it is known that normal operations will be impossible to be reestablished in the Port Arthur, TX area. Approximately 150 servings per meal (breakfast, lunch, dinner and midnight rations) per day will need to be prepared; the number of meals may go up or down depending on the needs of the Coast Guard. One conference room must be able to accommodate approximately 4,800 square feet and three conference rooms must be no smaller than 120 square feet each.
